

Ingredients to avoid

Here at Natural Health, we endeavour to exclude products containing the below banned ingredients in our awards, but there may be occasions when we feel the overall formulation of the product combined with the brand's ethos, mean small amounts are permissible.

Aluminium

Artificial fragrance (parfum) THIS CAN GO THROUGH IF IT INDICATES THAT IT IS NATURAL ON THE ITEM OR WEBSITE

Diethanolamine (DEA)

Formaldehyde

Parabens (methyl-, ethyl-, butyl-, propyl-)

Butylphenyl methylpropional

Petroleum (petrolatum)

Mineral oil (paraffinum liquidum)

Petroleum derived products (e.g. propylene glycol), Silicones and derivatives (e.g.+ dimethicone) Phenoxethanol ALTHOUGH THIS CAN BE PLANT DERIVED

Sodium lauryl sulphate

Talc

Triethanolamine (TEA)

Triclosan

Lead, (any eye product containing any of the following could potentially contain lead: kohl, kajal, al-Kahal, surma, tiro, tozali, kwalli)

Mercury and thimerosal

Phthalates: methylparaben, propylparaben, ethylparaben, butylparaben, toluene and polyfluoroalkyl substances

Benzophenone-type ultraviolet filters (petroleum, petrolatum, paraffinum liquidum)

Dimethicone,

Sodium lauryl sulphate, (DBP, DEHP, DEP, BPA)

Silicones

Chemical screens

Dyes and SLS

Propylene glycol

Microbeads